

My Date With A Vampire 2 — Episode 7
This Coffee Tasted Awful

---

Siu Ling: In Japan, there were eight similar cases. Let's presume the same person killed them. Adding three others in HK, makes a total of eleven. But there are hardly any similarities among them, except that they're all females aged between 18 and 22.

Tin Yau: The murderer does not follow a pattern when killing and each victim is discovered only 3 days later. The strange thing is that all victims were kneeling as if they were praying. So? Do you want tea with milk or coffee?

Siu Ling: You should know I don't drink tea with milk.

Siu Ling: This coffee tastes awful! Your coffee used to taste great!

Tin Yau: Let's discuss Mong Mong's case. She was found immediately after she was murdered. It could be that the murderer changed his killing habits. Or that he was forced.

Siu Ling: Perhaps he was forced. To think of it, we reached the scene so quickly.

Tin Yau: And he placed the body on your car.

Siu Ling: To show his triumph. If he really regarded himself as a vampire, he did that to spite me.

Tin Yau: Oh yes, how did you know something happened to Mong Mong?

Siu Ling: This coffee really tastes awful.
